Origin and Mythological Significance

The word “Rudraksha” is derived from two Sanskrit words: “Rudra”, a name of Lord Shiva, and “Aksha”, meaning tears. According to ancient scriptures, Rudraksha beads were formed from the tears of Lord Shiva when he meditated for the welfare of humanity. These sacred tears fell upon the earth and grew into the Rudraksha tree.

Because of this divine origin, Rudraksha beads are considered extremely powerful and closely associated with Lord Shiva. Wearing a Rudraksha Mala is believed to bring his blessings, protection, and spiritual guidance.
